

We are looking for a:

Press and External Communication Specialist

Barcelona

About us:

SOLTI is an academic research group that performs clinical trials of excellence in oncology. Currently, SOLTI is comprised of over 550 renowned research professionals distributed over a broad network of more than 100 leading hospitals in Spain, Portugal, France and Ireland.

SOLTI focuses its efforts on developing cutting-edge clinical trials with novel targeted therapeutics including innovative translational research, fostering the participation in international networks and promoting excellence in the management of cancer among their members.

The mission of the Press and External Communication Specialist is to enhance SOLTI's reputation and visibility while fostering stronger engagement with stakeholders by effectively sharing SOLTI's news and scientific accomplishments.

Main responsibilities:

- Contribute to the development of the Annual Strategic Communication Plan, taking a leading role in creating the press and corporate communication strategy.
- Draft and distribute SOLTI's press releases, ensuring proper follow-up with media outlets.
- Plan, coordinate, and oversee workshops specifically designed for journalists.
- Monitor daily news releases related to medical advancements in the field of oncology.
- Build and maintain an in-depth understanding of media needs, particularly those of key outlets for SOLTI, fostering strong relationships with editors and reporters.
- Stay informed about national and international medical community channels, identifying opportunities for collaboration and visibility.
- Prepare SOLTI's Annual Report.

Requirements and skills:

- Bachelor's degree in Journalism, Communication or Public Relations.
- At least 3 years of professional experience in a corporate communication department or a communication agency.
- Exceptional communication skills with a strong focus on precision and clarity.
- Strong ability to comprehend complex scientific information and translate it into clear, engaging, and accessible messages for diverse audiences.
- Proficiency in creating accurate, concise, and educational content for presentations.
- Excellent computer skills, including expertise in Microsoft Office (Word, Excel, PowerPoint) and familiarity with online analytics tools.
- Advanced English level.

What we offer:

Explore the opportunity of joining an organization engaged in cutting-edge projects with significant social impact.

We offer the possibility of working from home up to 3 days a week with a flexible work schedule, an appealing office location, a supportive team environment and additional benefits.
